

MACPHERSON'S

"FOR QUALITY"

FINAL WEEK OF PRICE
REDUCTIONS
ON ALL OUR
FINE FUR SCARFS
AND MUFFSPRICES LOWEST OF SEASON.

Advancing costs, and the prices for Raw Skins, established at the recent National St. Louis and New York sales, indicate a great increase in prices of manufactured furs next season.

MACPHERSON

QUALITY CORNER

Opp. Chelsea Savings Bank

Hamilton Watches

ALL GRADES — ALL SIZES

PRICES THE LOWEST

THE WM. FRISWELL CO.

25-27 Franklin Street

CUMMINGS & RING

Funeral Directors

and Embalmers

322 Main Street

Chamber of Commerce Building

Phone 218-2 Lady Assistant

SALE OF ENAMEL WARE

Old English and Hampshire Gray Enamel Ware. First quality, fine even finish ware.

8-quart Kettle 85c

There is to be a memorial mass in St. Patrick's church Wednesday for Miss Ella M. Frederick, sister of the rector and a native of Williamstown who died in New Haven, where she was assistant principal of the State Normal school.

Elmer Bertrand of the Esels Five and Drum corps, Moosup, has just finished making what he calls a Jumbo model drum, which is 18 1/2 inches in diameter and weighs 150 pounds. It is made of one piece of iron and is of great interest to all drummers.

In order to obtain a full and accurate record of the farm of Edwin T. Meredith, the newly appointed secretary of the department of agriculture, is appealing to the American farmers of the country to give their hearty co-operation and assistance toward this survey.

The Ironides Board corporation at Thamesville has 300 gallons of oil for power in its tanks and expects another invoice to leave New York Tuesday, so that the 225 employees of the mill are to have no trouble in making up for time lost through the delay in the oil's arrival.

It became known that Capt. Ezra L. Kelley was unable to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Buckridge, as he is one of the crew of the Cornfield lightship, which cleared for mooring in the recent gale and drifted down the sound to Fishers Island.

John Russell has sold his farm on Matuxet avenue, Myrtle, to Mrs. Gloriana Brunsdon. The farm contains a house and 14 acres of land and for many years he used it for a dairy farm. Mr. Russell will go to New Haven and reside with his son, Dr. Walter Russell.

High mass, sung by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, was resumed at 10:30 in St. Patrick's church Sunday, low mass being celebrated for several weeks during unfavorable weather and during conditions of illness in the parish. Rev. Peter J. Cuny preached on the feast of St. Patrick.

Some of the most faithful workers on the trolley road in Norwich, who have won special commendation from President Robert W. Perkins, have been the Italian switchmen, who the first big storm have been up before 4 o'clock each morning, clearing out and saving the switches.

The formal transfer of the duties of the prohibition enforcement office of Connecticut took place Saturday when a representative of the internal revenue of Washington instructed Julius C. Stenlund, recently appointed, who the first big storm have been up before 4 o'clock each morning, clearing out and saving the switches.

RAYMOND J. JODON

ALBERT CULLEN

Selection for the town of Sprague

Dated at Baltic, March 1, 1920.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUSINESS before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, March 1, 1920.

VARIOUS MATTERS

It is daybreak now at 4:35. The first day of the first month of spring.

Light vehicle lamps at 6:03 o'clock this evening.

March 1st is St. David's day, dear to all Welshmen.

An unusually large number of mailers spent Sunday in Norwich.

The best moonlight nights during March will be from the 2d to the 6th.

The end of the almanac winter finds most household coals and woodpiles with a big dent in them.

It is an interesting fact that one of the gayest winter resorts this season is Norwich, in Bermuda.

A few khaki comforts, double bed bags, and coats for sale at Y. M. C. A.

William H. Miner, 48, born in Lyme, who died at the Woonsocket hospital last week from pneumonia, was a sister of Mrs. A. E. Morrison of Groveland.

The tables in the Otis library reading room were well surrounded during Sunday afternoon when Miss W. W. Thomsen, New London, was in charge. There were 73 visitors.

New London papers mention that a former Norwich resident, Miss Hildegarde Hirsch, of Clinton Park, was confined to her home by illness, is improving.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church, Plainfield, Rev. Richard R. Graham of Christ church, Norwich, will preach the Lenten sermon Wednesday evening, March 3.

It was announced at the Central Baptist church Sunday that Passion week services are to be held Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of Passion week.

Sunday night at the home time at the Central Baptist church of the young people, enjoyed the privilege of an illustrated lecture on the Holy Land by Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Selden.

Beautiful amulets and other spring flowers from the greenhouse of Miss Charles W. Gale decorate the preacher's desk at the Central Baptist church every Sunday, although Mrs. Gale is in California.

Kimball's Textile Shop will be closed until March 15th. Upon opening, a new and very attractive collection of spring dress goods will be on hand.

Agents at all railroad stations received notice to take inventory of everything at their station and close their report at midnight, Feb. 29, as today, March 1st, the government closes control of the railroads.

Mrs. James Jones died in Norwich last week after a year's illness. The body was taken to Saybrook, to the home of her son, Mr. Charles Denison, Saybrook Point, and was buried in Cypress cemetery.

At a big union community service held in the Middletown Baptist church, the pastor was Rev. Peter C. W. Miller, D. D., pastor of the Asylum Union Baptist church of Hartford, formerly of Central Baptist church, Norwich.

The State's official service commission announced for March 17 and 18 an examination for forest assistant, males, 20 years of age and upward, for vacancies in the forest service, department of agriculture, at $1,500 to $1,900 per annum.

The thousands of persons who have walked up and down Washington street the past month are ready to testify that one of the most beautiful and best kept walks in the city is the long frontage at the residence of William H. Shields.

Yale men are being asked to rally 'round the blue banner and make Arthur T. Hadley, president of the university, president of the United States and a constant principal of the State Normal school.

Elmer Bertrand of the Esels Five and Drum corps, Moosup, has just finished making what he calls a Jumbo model drum, which is 18 1/2 inches in diameter and weighs 150 pounds. It is made of one piece of iron and is of great interest to all drummers.

In order to obtain a full and accurate record of the farm of Edwin T. Meredith, the newly appointed secretary of the department of agriculture, is appealing to the American farmers of the country to give their hearty co-operation and assistance toward this survey.

The Ironides Board corporation at Thamesville has 300 gallons of oil for power in its tanks and expects another invoice to leave New York Tuesday, so that the 225 employees of the mill are to have no trouble in making up for time lost through the delay in the oil's arrival.

It became known that Capt. Ezra L. Kelley was unable to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Buckridge, as he is one of the crew of the Cornfield lightship, which cleared for mooring in the recent gale and drifted down the sound to Fishers Island.

John Russell has sold his farm on Matuxet avenue, Myrtle, to Mrs. Gloriana Brunsdon. The farm contains a house and 14 acres of land and for many years he used it for a dairy farm. Mr. Russell will go to New Haven and reside with his son, Dr. Walter Russell.

High mass, sung by Rev. Myles P. Galvin, was resumed at 10:30 in St. Patrick's church Sunday, low mass being celebrated for several weeks during unfavorable weather and during conditions of illness in the parish. Rev. Peter J. Cuny preached on the feast of St. Patrick.

Some of the most faithful workers on the trolley road in Norwich, who have won special commendation from President Robert W. Perkins, have been the Italian switchmen, who the first big storm have been up before 4 o'clock each morning, clearing out and saving the switches.

The formal transfer of the duties of the prohibition enforcement office of Connecticut took place Saturday when a representative of the internal revenue of Washington instructed Julius C. Stenlund, recently appointed, who the first big storm have been up before 4 o'clock each morning, clearing out and saving the switches.

RAYMOND J. JODON

ALBERT CULLEN

Selection for the town of Sprague

Dated at Baltic, March 1, 1920.

WHEN YOU WANT TO PUT YOUR BUSINESS before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

PERSONALS

Joseph P. Cummings, who is ill at his home on Hobart avenue, is recovering rapidly.

Policeman Charles Smith, who has been off duty for a week with a severe grip cold is slowly recovering.

It is noted at Plainfield that Charles Jerome shows marked improvement, after a serious illness of several weeks.

Mrs. James P. Fox of 87 Fourth street, who has been seriously ill at the Backus hospital for the past few weeks, is sufficiently recovered to be removed to her home where she is reported as regaining her normal health.

Superintendent of Schools Edward J. Graham returned to Norwich Saturday after a pleasant and profitable week spent in Cleveland, O., attending the convention of the National Association of School Superintendents.

The Holy Name society of St. Mary's parish was successfully reorganized on Sunday evening at a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting held in the assembly room of the church on North Main street.

Rev. William H. Kennedy gave the men an instructive and thoughtful address upon the general subject of the Church and the Labor Movement. He discussed the ideals that have always inspired the church in its relations to this subject in the past centuries and brought out the ideas which should govern the capitalist and labor today in seeking to adjust the differences which threaten the nation.

It was announced that a series of lectures would be given from time to time for the membership of the society.

Funerals.

Mrs. Flavia Pessoli.

Funeral services for Mrs. Flavia Pessoli were held on Saturday morning from her home at 21 West Thomsen street, with relatives and friends present, some coming from New York, New London and other places. There were many beautiful floral tributes. At the services in St. Patrick's church Rev. Peter J. Cuny was celebrant of a mass of requiem. Rev. Farrell was the organist and at the close of the mass two hymns were sung. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, friends acting as bearers. Undertaken by Charles Potter officiating in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Rosa A. Leonard.

The funeral of Mrs. Rosa A. Leonard of 437 Main street was held at her late home Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. Charles Potter officiating. A prayer was held at her home which was followed by a service at the Holy Name mission at 2 o'clock. Many friends and relatives from out of town attended the funeral. There were many handsome floral tributes. The bearers were George A. Chapman, John Johnson, and William McNeely. The body was placed in the receiving vault in Maplewood cemetery where burial was held. Rev. Charles Potter and Rine were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Louis H. Smith.

Funeral services for Isabelle M. Goodwin, wife of Louis H. Smith, were held at her late home in Franklin on Sunday afternoon with many relatives and friends present. There were many beautiful floral forms. The services were held by Rev. Charles Potter, who was in charge of the funeral arrangements. Burial was in the Franklin church. Two hymns were rendered by Mrs. Tate and Mrs. Armstrong. The bearers were two sons, Charles and George Goodwin, and Horace and Myron Smith. Burial was at the convenience of the family.

Church and Allen were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

Kazmina Wozniak.

The funeral of Kazmina Wozniak, 3 years of age, daughter of Ignace and Mary Wozniak, was held from the home of her parents in Yantic on Friday morning, followed by a mass of requiem at St. Patrick's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. L. V. Macleod was celebrant of the mass. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. Church and Allen were in charge of the funeral arrangements.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Benjamin F. Parsons.

Following an illness of four weeks, Mrs. Benjamin Parsons died at the home of her son, George W. Parsons, at 10 Elizabeth street on Sunday morning. Mrs. Parsons was born in Preston on November 1, 1854, the daughter of Alfred and Melina Gulle. When a young woman she was married to Albert Gulle, who later died. After his death she was united in marriage with B. F. Parsons and for the past forty years has made her home at 10 Elizabeth street. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Helen Parsons, and two sons, Albert and Charles W. Parsons of this city. There are several grandchildren.

Cornelius Shea.

The death of Cornelius Shea occurred Friday, Feb. 27th, at his home on West Main street. While a partial invalid for many months he was seriously ill of pneumonia, but his death was sudden. Mr. Shea was born in Ireland but came to this country with his parents when a young boy, spending the most of his life in Norwich.

Mr. Shea was twice married, both ceremonies being held at St. Mary's church in Greenville. His first wife, whose name was Murphy, following her death he married Miss Julia Shugrue.

His invalid wife, three daughters, Mrs. John M. Dwyer, Mrs. John M. Dwyer, and Miss Julia Shea, and four grandsons survive him.

Miss Julia Shea lives at home and has been a loyal, loving daughter and through whose devotion his declining years have been made peaceful and happy.

The four grandsons are Frank Williams, an John Jr., Walter and William Clabby, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Clabby, Sr.

Through his integrity and squareness in his business dealings, Mr. Shea won many friends and both the young and older people of the west side of the city will miss his cheery greetings and the stories he often told.

Mrs. Charles H. Allen.

On Sunday evening Martha R. Allen died at the home of her son, Frank H. Allen at 39 Williams street. Mrs. Allen was 98 years of age, having lived the greater part of her life in this city where she has a large circle of friends. Her husband was a member of the firm of Hopkins, Bennett and Allen, of Norwich. Her son is a prominent patent attorney in Boston and had an office in this city for many years before going to Boston.

Mind May Be Affected.

Richard Carter, 37, colored, living at 50 Centre street, was taken into custody Saturday night by the police at the request of his relatives. They said his actions indicated that his mind might be affected and they were afraid of him.

If you want to see the real thing in frozen finance wait a crowd of women at a bargain sale.

NORWICH ZIONISTS START TO RAISE $15,000

Over $3,000, of which $2,400 came in six contributions of $400 each, was raised Sunday night towards the Norwich quota of the Zionist restoration fund at a banquet held at the Buckingham Memorial by the Norwich Zionist society. The Norwich quota is $15,000; the state quota $40,000 and the national fund to be raised $10,000,000.

Mayor J. J. Diamond was a guest of the evening and gave a brief address of encouragement and good wishes.

The board held its sitting from the 1st to the 29th of February in the assembly room of the town hall. The rest of the month was spent in outside work, looking at the pieces of property and in the clerical work required to make out their report. The report is given herewith:

Board of Relief Report.

Final Grand List as Corrected by Bd. of Relief

Christ. Skirt, new list, stock in trade. $1,100

Empire Skirt Co., new list, manufacturer. 450

Nelson V. Porter, non-resident, lot. 440

Clarence H. Amburn, soldier exempt. 290

W. Humphrey Army, error, auto. 7,000

Amer. Wood Work Mchry. Co., mills. 75

Francis J. Buckley, soldier, exempt, lot. 1,000

W. W. Carroll, error, auto. 1,800

David D. Disco, dwelling. 900

Herman H. Hilderbrand, soldier exempt. 180

Pauline Kniff, auto. 3,500

Edward D. Ladd, soldier exempt, auto. 170

Grace P. Lindgren, error, auto. 185

Robert H. Mahoney, soldier exempt, 300

Marlin-Rockwell Corp., mills. 24,500

Abraham N. Meyer, soldier, exempt. 1,000

Wm. H. O'Connor, error, lot. 1,000

Wm. Orlman, soldier exempt, auto. 150

John D. Potter, error, auto. 440

Sherwood B. Potter, error, auto. 150

Nathan Rabinovitch, soldier exempt. 440

Louis J. Savage, soldier exempt, lot. 300

Edw. M. St. John, error, auto. 1,000

Edw. H. Street, soldier, exempt. 160

Totals $2,090 $56,465

FOURTH DEGREE FAREWELL TO FRANCIS T. DIGGINS

A special meeting of Rev. Daniel Mullen Assembly, fourth degree section, Knights of Columbus, was held Sunday afternoon at the K. of C. home on Broadway, bringing together a large attendance of the members from all over the territory within the jurisdiction of the assembly, comprising the councils between Norwich and Putnam.

Faithful Navigator Joseph S. Burns presided at the meeting and after a few introductory remarks announced that the meeting was in the nature of an informal reception to Francis T. Diggins, a prominent member of the assembly, who is to leave Norwich at an early date.

Following the remarks of the presiding officer, John M. Lee, master of the fourth degree for the district of Connecticut, presented him with a handsome signet ring, suitably inscribed and ornamented with the emblem of the fourth degree, as a testimonial of the esteem in which he is held by the members of the assembly. Although visibly affected by the thoughtfulness of his fellow members, Mr. Diggins very gracefully expressed his appreciation of the gift and assured them that he will always cherish the occasion as one of the most pleasing features of his association with Rev. Daniel Mullen Assembly.

During his residence in Norwich Mr. Diggins has been an active member of the Knights of Columbus, and has been a promoter of the interests of the fourth degree section of the order. He was faithful navigator of the Rev. Daniel Mullen Assembly during the term of 1918 and 1919 and under his leadership the organization made the greatest progress in its history, besides taking a prominent part in the various social activities of the community during that period.

Mr. Diggins has accepted a position with the Knickerbocker company of Boston, investment bankers, and will represent their interests in New Hampshire and Vermont. He leaves today (Monday) to take up the duties of his new position, and will return later in the month to remove his family to Charleston, N. H., where he will make his future home.

KEEP SMILING CLUB

SURPRISES MISS FITZGERALD

The "Keep Smiling" club, a small club of young people of Dunham street and Geer avenue, has held enjoyable meetings during the winter when the evenings have been given half to work and half to play.

Friday evening was an extra and informal evening when a table was set for one of its members, Miss Helen Fitzgerald, at the home of her aunt, Miss Kate Cummings, of Geer avenue.

The surprise was held to help celebrate the thirteenth birthday of the young hostess and was a great success. A lively time with games and music was enjoyed, the evening passing very quickly.

During the evening Helen was presented two books from the club as a reminder of the occasion.

A 9:30 o'clock table was set for the dining room where a table was set resplendent with two large cakes, a birthday cake with proper markings, and an elaborate club cake with the club name marked upon it. The gift of Miss Muriel Holdridge, cake, ice cream, candy and fruit were served.

The club members are the Misses Muriel Holdridge, Alice Wolff, Helen Fitzgerald, Fred Johnson, Isabelle Mulcahy and Anna Johnson.

WINDHAM CO. SUPERIOR COURT WEEK'S ASSIGNMENTS

In the Windham County superior court Clerk Edgar M. Warner has announced the following assignments at Putnam:

To Court first Tuesday, March 2, Luther E. Hopkins vs. Byron M. Lewis; second Tuesday, March 2, Frank A. Phillips vs. M. V. Dowd; first Wednesday, March 3, Frank A. Phillips vs. M. V. Dowd; second Wednesday, March 3, James C. Bennett vs. John Student; first Wednesday, March 10, Mike Taylor vs. Edward Bennett; second Wednesday, March 10, William Jolly et al. vs. Joseph Jolly et al.

Boat Train Back on Schedule.

The New Haven road boat train due here from Worcester at 9:47 Friday night got in at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, due to snow troubles in Massachusetts, but the line was out of trouble by Saturday night and the boat train that evening was only half an hour late.

NORWICH ZIONISTS START TO RAISE $15,000

Over $3,000, of which $2,400 came in six contributions of $400 each, was raised Sunday night towards the Norwich quota of the Zionist restoration fund at a banquet held at the Buckingham Memorial by the Norwich Zionist society. The Norwich quota is $15,000; the state quota $40,000 and the national fund to be raised $10,000,000.

Mayor J. J. Diamond was a guest of the evening and gave a brief address of encouragement and good wishes.

The board held its sitting from the 1st to the 29th of February in the assembly room of the town hall. The rest of the month was spent in outside work, looking at the pieces of property and in the clerical work required to make out their report. The report is given herewith:

Board of Relief Report.

Final Grand List as Corrected by Bd. of Relief

Christ. Skirt, new list, stock in trade. $1,100

Empire Skirt Co., new list, manufacturer. 450

Nelson V. Porter, non-resident, lot. 440

Clarence H. Amburn, soldier exempt. 290

W. Humphrey Army, error, auto. 7,000

Amer. Wood Work Mchry. Co., mills. 75

Francis J. Buckley, soldier, exempt, lot. 1,000

W. W. Carroll, error, auto. 1,800

David D. Disco, dwelling. 900

Herman H. Hilderbrand, soldier exempt. 180

Pauline Kniff, auto. 3,500

Edward D. Ladd, soldier exempt, auto. 170

Grace P. Lindgren, error, auto. 185

Robert H. Mahoney, soldier exempt, 300

Marlin-Rockwell Corp., mills. 24,500

Abraham N. Meyer, soldier, exempt. 1,000

Wm. H. O'Connor, error, lot. 1,000

Wm. Orlman, soldier exempt, auto. 150

John D. Potter, error, auto. 440

Sherwood B. Potter, error, auto. 150

Nathan Rabinovitch, soldier exempt. 440

Louis J. Savage, soldier exempt, lot. 300

Edw. M. St. John, error, auto. 1,000

Edw. H. Street, soldier, exempt. 160

Totals $2,090 $56,465

FOURTH DEGREE FAREWELL TO FRANCIS T. DIGGINS

A special meeting of Rev. Daniel Mullen Assembly, fourth degree section, Knights of Columbus, was held Sunday afternoon at the K. of C. home on Broadway, bringing together a large attendance of the members from all over the territory within the jurisdiction of the assembly, comprising the councils between Norwich and Putnam.

Faithful Navigator Joseph S. Burns presided at the meeting and after a few introductory remarks